"People helping people help themselves"

The Bureau of Aging and In-Home Services under the Division of Disability, Aging, and Rehabilitative Services, a part of the Indiana Family and Social Services Administration, has compiled this directory.

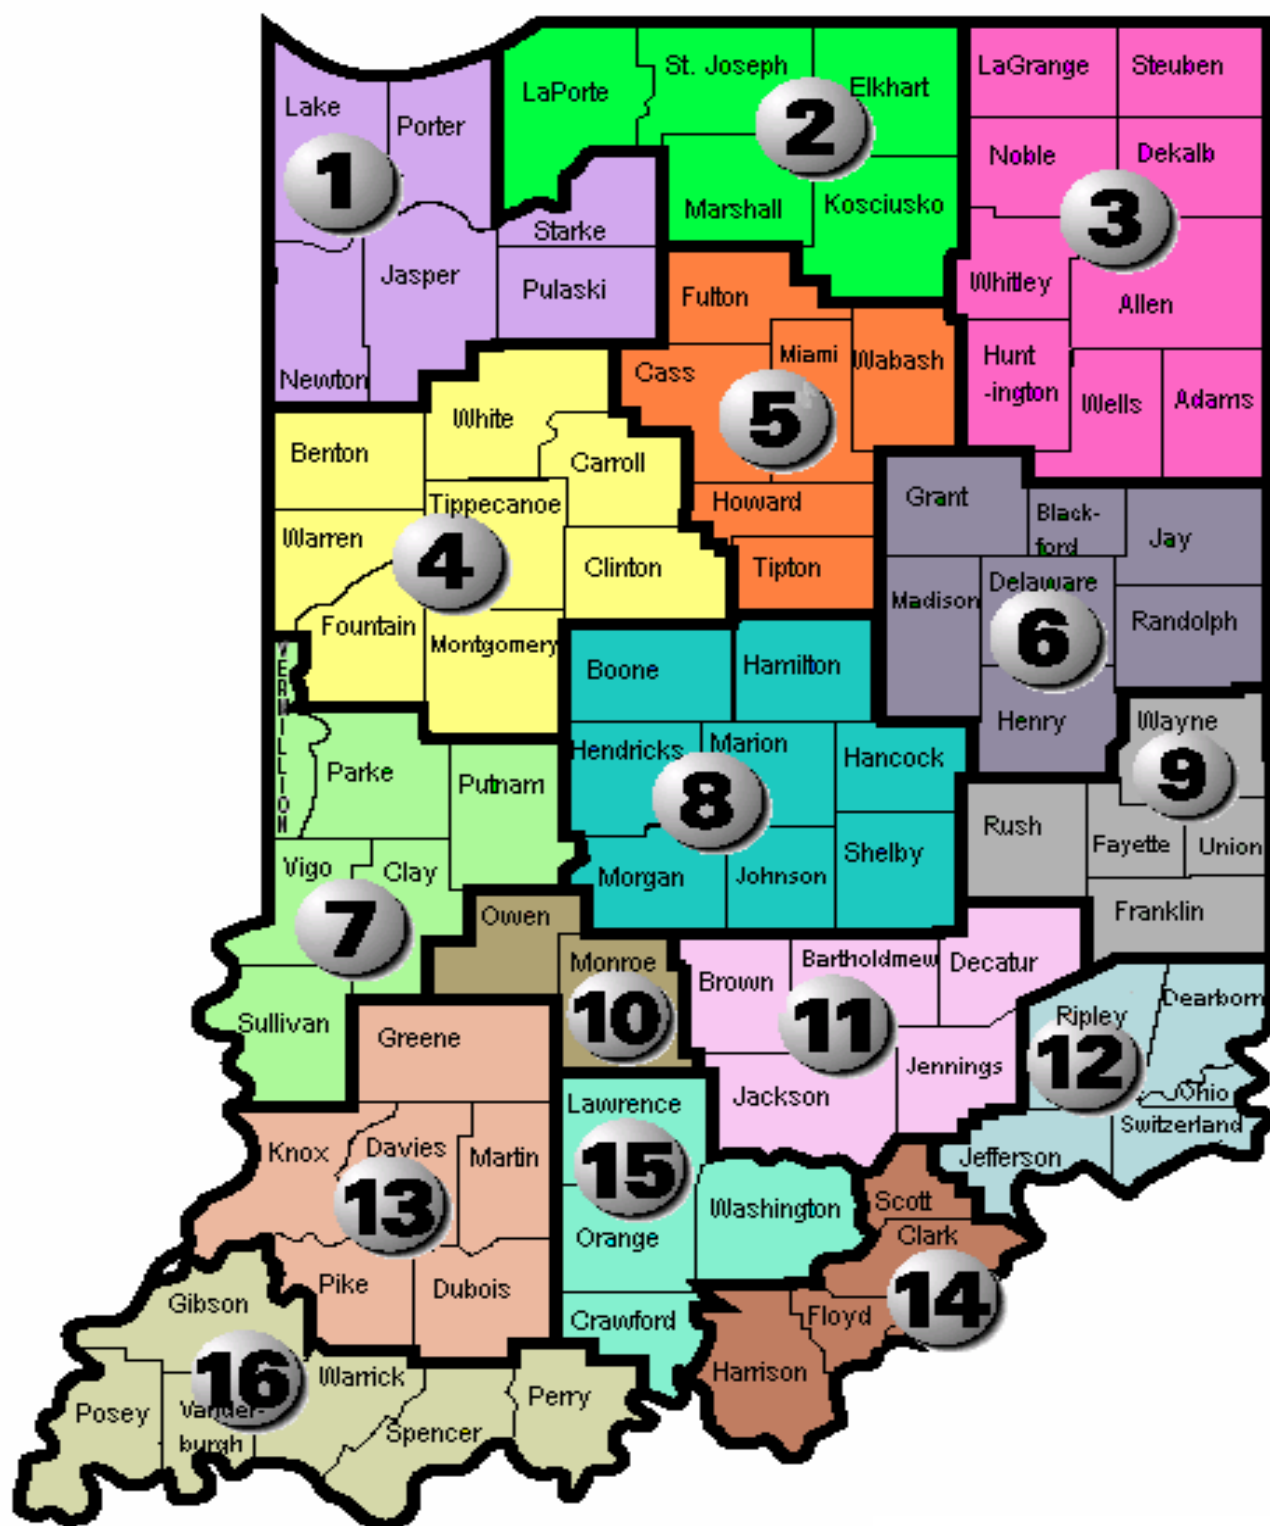

This directory has been compiled by the Bureau of Aging and In-Home Services under the Division of Disability, Aging and Rehabilitative Services, a part of the Indiana Family and Social Services Administration. Senior Centers and Focal Points are listed first by the Area Agency and then by county. A map of the State of Indiana highlighting the sixteen Areas and also a listing of the Agencies, their addresses, email addresses and fax numbers are included inside.

Senior Centers have been established throughout the State of Indiana to provide a broad range of services for senior citizens within their communities. These services include, but are not limited to, physical and mental health, social, nutrition, and educational services. The centers often provide a facility for many recreational activities that are enjoyed by older individuals.

Focal Points are located in each Area Agency and serve as a point of contact for services available to individuals residing within each Area. These focal points are multi-purpose senior centers and are intended to be highly visible and accessible a places to turn for information, services and opportunities which are provided by the area agency as well a soothe community service organizations. Families can also use the focal points as a resource for seeking support while caring for older people and/or persons with disabilities.

Please contact the senior center, focal point or Area Agency on Aging directly for hours of operation. Please contact the individual Area Agency on Aging located at the top of each of the agency's pages for other information as needed.
